

Wednesday Afternoons at the Martha Canfield Library

 Updated schedule with changes on these dates

Programs offered weekly during JISP/Skating days
Suited for children in Grades K and up

Teens are invited to attend and either help younger students or participate themselves. On two afternoons a separate Teen program will be held in the youth room of the library. See listings below.

Jan. 2 – March 13, 2019 1:00-3:00

- Jan. 2 Arctic Expedition: Creating with Legos - Peggy and Jessica Roberts
- Jan. 2 Teen's Movie in Youth Room
- Jan. 9 Creating Upcycled Wall Art – Jessica Roberts
- Jan. 16 Gingerbread House Making – Jessica Roberts
Gingerbread stories will be read and each participant will get to make their own gingerbread house.
- Jan. 23 “Snow Day” at the Library – with Library Volunteer, Jessica Roberts and Andrea Malinowski from RiseVT. Sliding, Snowshoeing, outdoor games, crafts and hot chocolate. Bring a sled and/or snowshoes if you can. Dress for outside activities.
- Jan. 30 “Dog Days” of Winter – with Jessica Roberts and Second Chance Animal Shelter
- Feb. 6 Movie - TBA
- Feb. 6 Teen Program in Youth Room – Jewelry Making and Beading with Nique
- Feb. 13 Valentine's Day Crafts and Treats
We will create some Valentine treats to take home.
- Feb. 27 Jewelry/Beading Nique Figel
- Mar. 6 Collage – Peggy Hanson
- Mar. 13 Rick Ladue, Equinox Preservation Trust Steward - March Into Spring, an indoor/outdoor program focusing on the changes of the seasons. Dress for outside activities.

Please sign up for sessions by phone at 375-6153.

Programs are free and open to the public.